Day after day
Week after week
Month after month
And year after year
We see them
Drifting in and out
Of our lives.
Old ones,
New ones,
Insignificant and
Special ones,
The images of our Friends that we
Will carry with us
All of our lives.
We will always be able
To pick their faces
Out of any crowd.
No matter what
distances us,
The bond of friendship
Will always be there.

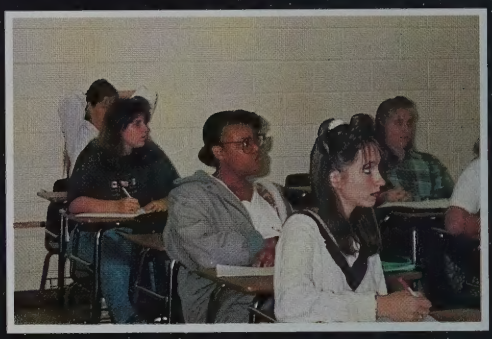
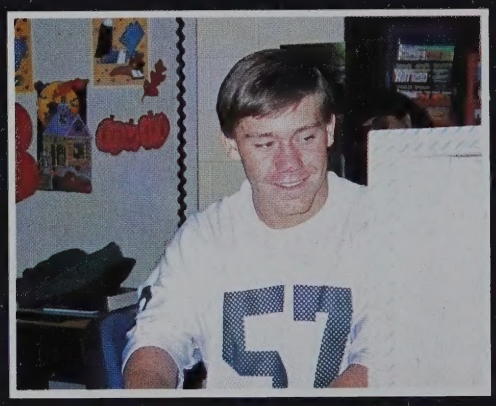
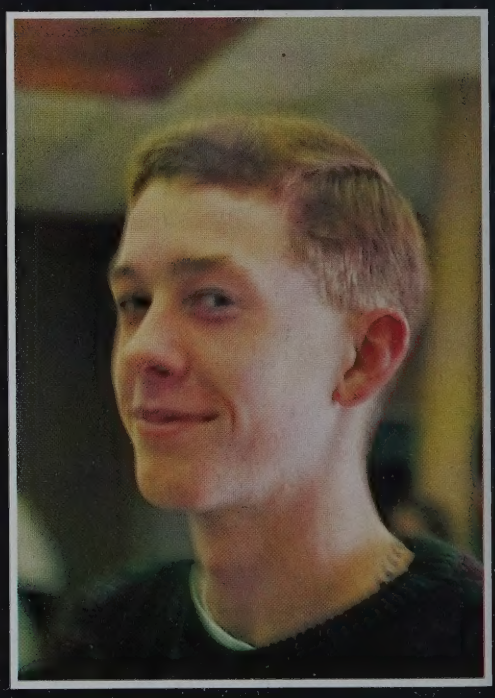
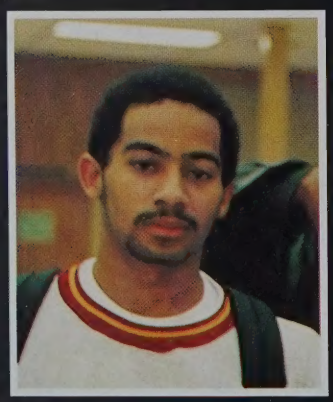
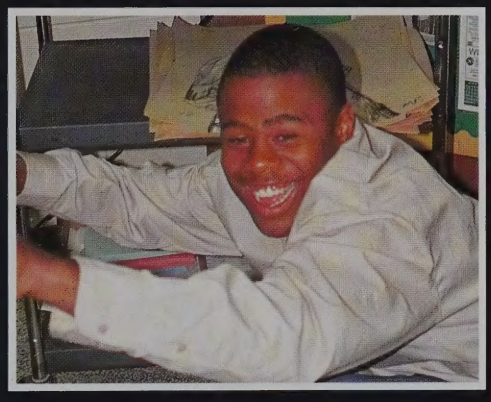
Student Life

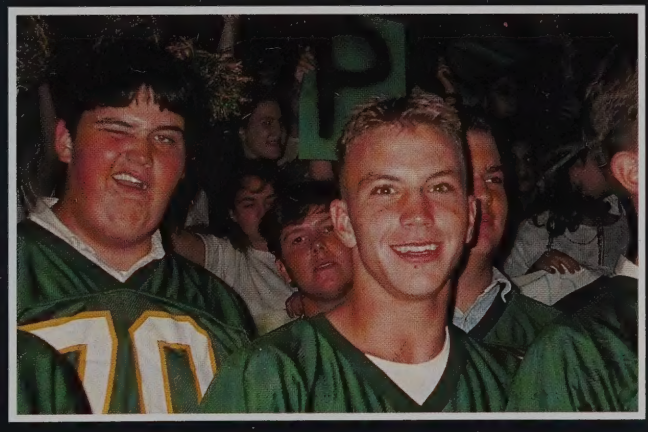












Oldies But Goodies

This year "Oldies But Goodies" was a successful day. Spirited students at Prince George High School got to experience a blast from the past. The most successful decade was the sixties which expressed emotions of peace, love, and happiness. Both students and faculty participated in making "Oldies But Goodies" enjoyable.

D'Lynn Shaw, David Weathington, and Andre Lovelace check out the old wheels.

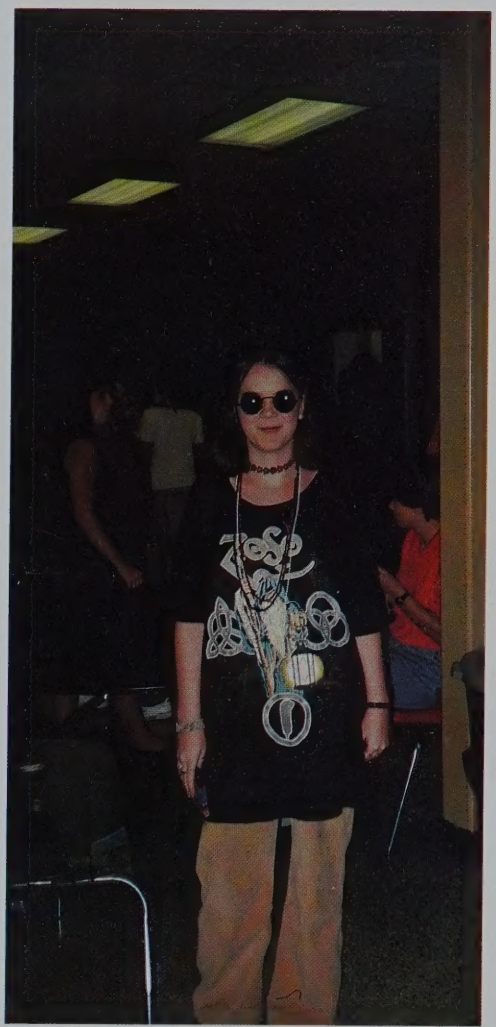
P.G. Seniors, Harrison Smith and D'Lynn Shaw, peace out.



That's a fashion statement!

though Hawiky is a dork

WEEK

rince George High School really showed its enthusiasm for pirit Week. This year the theme for the hall decorations was music." Because of the hard work of the junior class, they von the well deserved award of best hall. Every class showed heir spirit by dressing up each day, including teachers. Monay was College Day. Students wore sweatshirts, shirts and ats to represent their favorite college. On Tuesday people ressed in mismatched outfits to promote the spirit of Clash)ay. Wednesday was an unusual day where many students ressed as the opposite sex for Gender Bender Day. Toga Day vas Thursday where sheets and sandals were worn to repesent the style of ancient Rome. On the last day students wore reen, gold, and white everywhere to get fired up for the pep ally. That afternoon, the freshmen took home the spirit stick, nd the Seniors won the spirit links. Military Ball

JROTC's traditional Military Ball was held on April 22, 1994. The Ball was held in the Commons Area of Prince George High School. The welcoming ceremonies took place first at the Ball, followed by the presentation of the colors. Dinner was then served and a formal speech was held. The crowning of the King and Queen was followed by dancing the night away. Pictures were taken with a formal background by a photographer, and raffle drawings for prizes took place during the evening. Nominees for the Military Ball King were Adrian Taylor, LaWayne Bland, and James Powell. Francis Gonzalez, Bridgett Jones and Ladonna Shavers were the nominees for Queen. Adrian Taylor and Bridgett Jones were chosen by their fellow cadets to be the 1994 Military Ball King and Queen. The Military Ball was a fun time for all, and certainly something they will never forget.

Francis Gonzalez and James Powell escorted each other as nominees for Queen and King.

Wonderful Tonight

The Prom of '94, held at the Fort Lee Officers Club, was an evening for friends and students to gather. Together, they shared a time of elegance and the making of wonderful memories. As everyone enjoyed dancing in their evening gowns and tuxedos, many shared the excitement of the Prom King and Queen, Andre McDowell and Stacey Evans, being crowned. The evening was a pleasant and "wonderful" time for all who attended. This was surely an evening one would always remember and cherish.

So many pictures, so little time!

It's just not fair, why do I have to wear this silly hat?

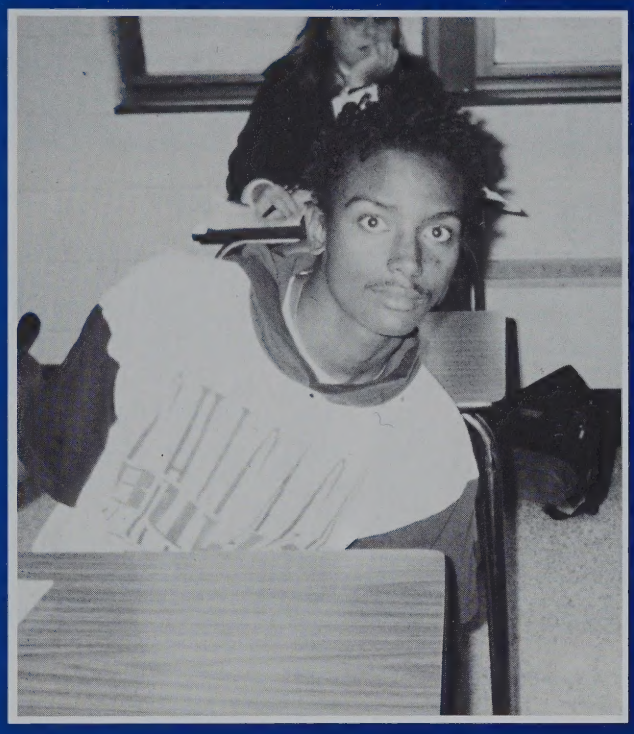
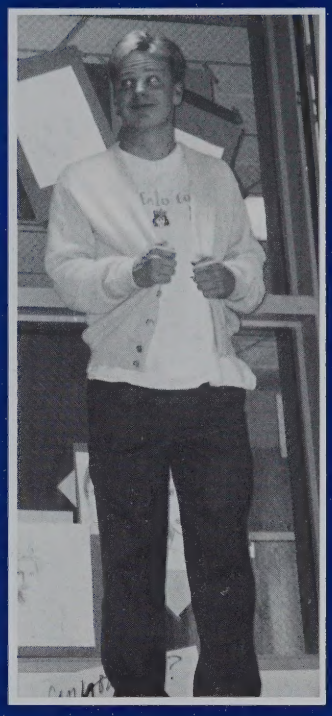
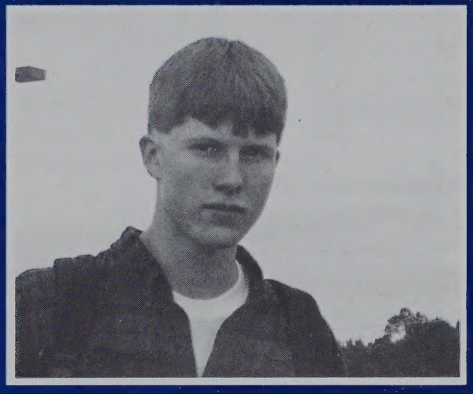
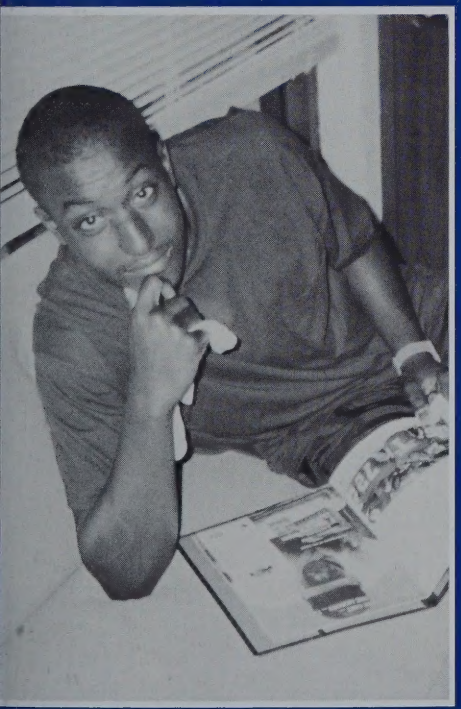
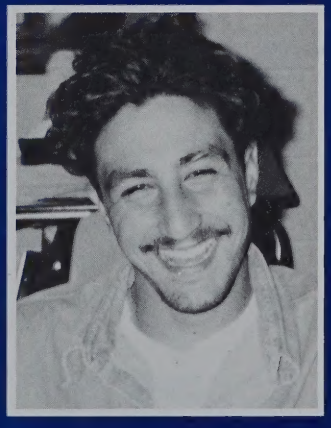
PRINCE GEORGE











Alma Mater

Prince George we love but thee,
Faithful and true we'll be
Friendly to all in need
Of a good deed.
To Prince George we do bow,
Of Prince George we are proud
We love our colors bright,
Green, Gold and White.

Now and forever
Dim though our paths may be,
Always remembering
Our pledge to thee
Never to be so proud,
Smile through our hopes and fears
Prince George we're true to you
Down through the years.

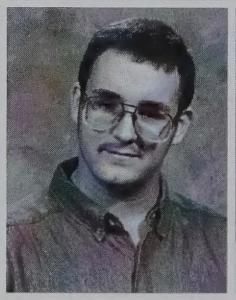
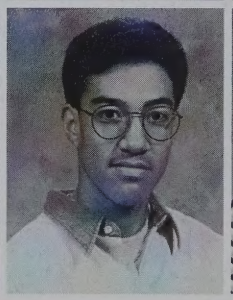
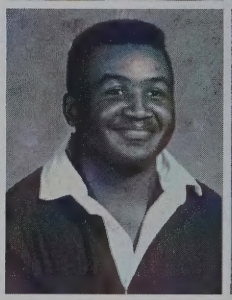
Jones, Katuana







There were three hundred and eighteen juniors at Prince George High School this year. That means there were three hundred and eighteen people nervously awaiting their senior year. To some students the junior year meant hard work, and to others it was a "slack" year. Either way most of us were aware that next year will be our last. The anticipation the Juniors endured awaiting their Senior year will be well worth it.

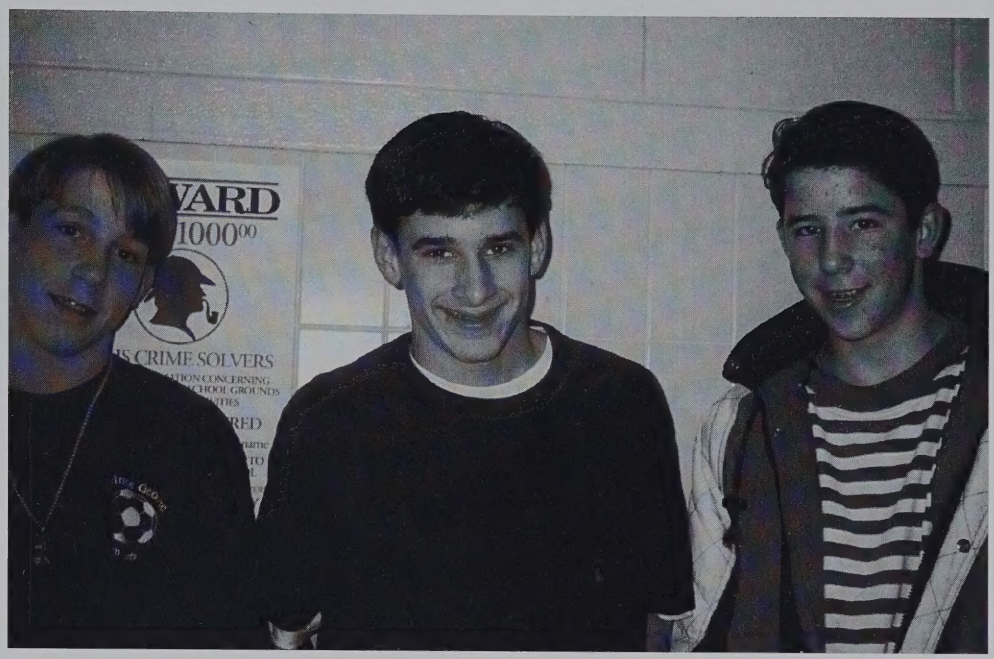
A PAIN IN THE FACE

Anyone who has braces can tell you hat they are a total "pain in the face." 'ou will always hear people with them n the hall or in class complaining about ow much they hurt (especially when ney have just come back from seeing the rthodontist)! It is like having someone ulling at your teeth 24 hours a day. Most of the students in our school have races in their freshman year and have een called every name in the book.

Even though braces are a real pain, fter it's all over, you have perfect teeth nd a great smile to match — until they nake you wear a retainer!



Joe Dodson, Brad Forehand, and Chris Merritt — dazzling!

VARSITY

This year's Varsity Football team had an outstanding season. Under the coaching of Cary C. Parker, the Varsity Royals were the first team from Prince George to win the Central District Championship and play in the Regional Playoffs. Their record of 11-3 makes this year the best season in the history of PGHS. Captains Matt Divina, Lazarus Durham, James Powell, and Levar Sykes were a tremendous guiding force. Stephen Curry, honored as Most Valuable Player, was also an important part of the team.

The 1994 Girls Varsity Tennis Team had another remarkable year. This marks their fifth consecutive district title and they came within one match of the state tournament. They finished the year with a 13-1 record. Leah Morris and Whitney Shaw advanced to the state tournament in doubles. Leah and D'Lynn Shaw won the district doubles title. Leah also won her third district singles title. The whole team showed tremendous dedication and enthusiasm. With a majority of the team underclassmen, we expect another incredible year in 1995.

The only way to summarize the 1995 Wrestling season is "magical." Jon Wood, Shane Stille, Reggie Edwards, and Kevin Turner were the captains that led the winning team. The teams strength was the amount of heart and character that the wrestlers put forth. The team constantly overcame the odds to produce victories. Coach Rivera said, "Everyone played their role to the fullest. They were truly a 'team' in every sense of the word." Kevin Turner, Jon Wood, and Reggie Edwards were Matoaca Tournament Champions. Reggie Edwards was named Outstanding Wrestler for the tournament. Reggie Edwards, Jon Wood, and Shane Stille were all ranked in the top 5 in the region at the same point in the season. The 1995 team established many records this year: 1st Winning Season, Most Wins, Most Pins, Most Points Scored, Fewest Points Allowed, First Undefeated Season, First Tournament Victory, First District Championship, and First Appearance in the Regional Duals. The highlight of the season was the eight straight pins against JR Tucker. They also enjoyed winning the District Championship in front of the "home crowd" against Hopewell. Shane Stille won the takedown club jacket for his great wrestling for the year. All future teams will strive to match the team of 95's success.

SCA

The main purpose of the Student Council was to provide responsible leadership for the students of Prince George High School, and act as the parent organization for all other clubs and organizations within the school. The organization also initiated projects for the benefit of the school and community. Some of these projects included the following: The Baltic Program, Senior-Teacher Switch Day, Student Gov't. Guidance Workers Guidance workers dedicate an entire period each day to help Mrs. Sturt and the guidance counselors. They are appreciated for their generous donation of time to keep the guidance office on track. The guidance office has been especially busy this year because of the extra students that have moved up to the high school. They have done a wonderful job helping all of the students with their problems, but it would have been much more difficult to set aside time to speak with the students without the help of the guidance workers and Mrs. Sturt.

LMC

The twenty-two members of the media services organization assisted both students and teachers in locating information and other resources in the Library Media Center. They have been a great help to the library media specialists and all LMC visitors. The library would have been complete confusion without the help of the library media specialists and the LMC helpers around February when all the research papers were due. They were a great help to all the students in helping them find their information or recommending another media center to find what they needed. They deserve to be commended for all of their patience and help.

All the band members continue to strive for excellence, so that the P.G. Royal Band will continue to be the "Pride of P.G."

The defense team map out their plan.

Tuesday, December 6, 1994, the Model Judiciary Club of Prince George High School and students from Amelia High School participated in a mock trial at Prince George County Circuit Court. Nine Prince George students made up the defense team supporting a union worker accused of murdering a higher ranking co-worker. Judge W. Park Lemmond Jr. presided over the case. The Prince George High School students did a great job in their work therefore they celebrated a victory. The Hopewell News covered this story.

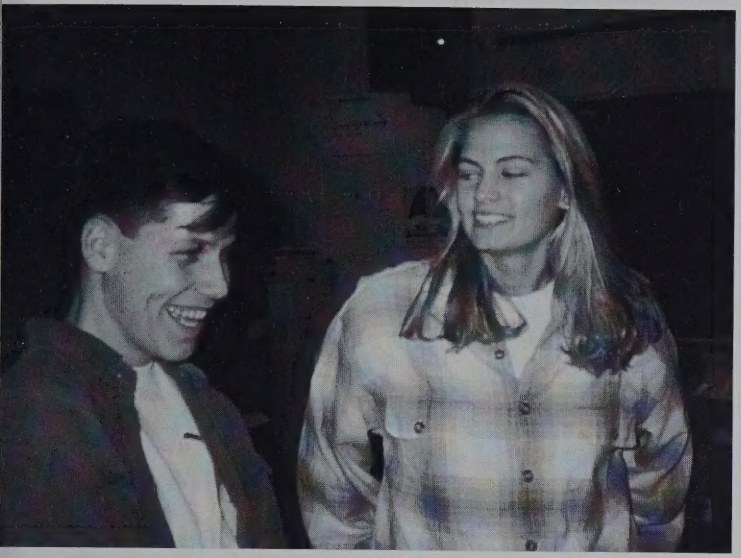
Lucinda Richey does what she does best — nothing!

Alisha Wells seems intrigued by her yearbook work.

"Can I Help You?"

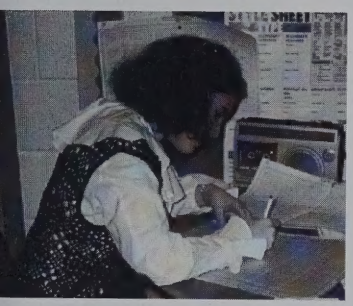
Not only has the yearbook class worked hard to achieve a "perfect yearbook," but the afterschool staff put in many long hours to help the yearbook along. Editor Harrison Smith, and co-editor, Sharon Pitchford, along with other dedicated members sacrificed their time and energy in order to make a well designed yearbook.

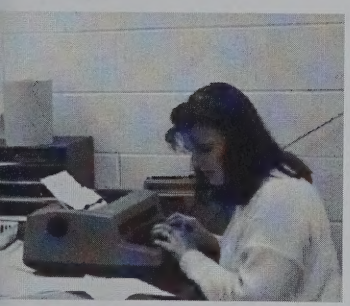
The new sponsors, Ms. Bradley and Ms. Greene, also gave up their time to help students with the yearbook. Both sponsors were new to the yearbook which made things very interesting. All in all, everyone is credited for a wonderfully designed yearbook.

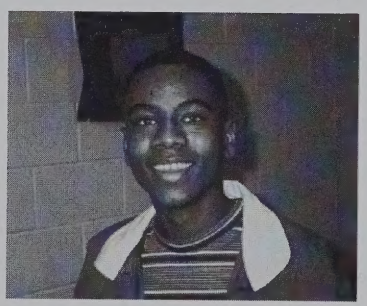


Future Editor and Co-Editor? Not!

Lindsey selectively picks the best pictures.

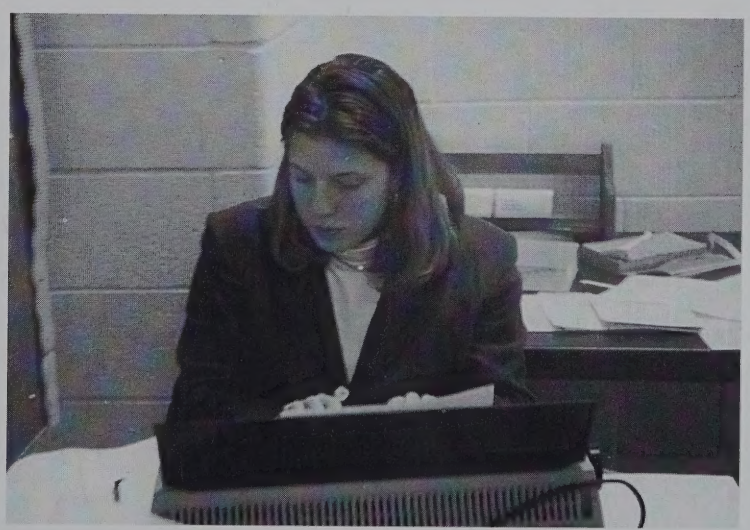






"I can't remember when I've had this much fun."

Rashidah's just having too much fun in yearbook class.



Ellie works hard to type those pages.

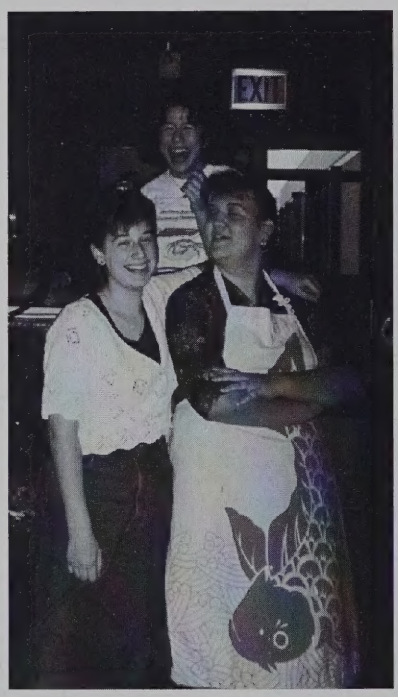
FAMILY

The fall play this year, Family Album, was directed by Mrs. Wood who is a new Prince George High School Drama I and English teacher. The play consisted of 18 different actors playing a variety of characters in 19 different scenes dealing with family life.

The play consisted of four seniors: Maggie Mallory, Francis Gonzales, Jason Bailey, and Shawn Washington; five juniors: Melissa Suitt, Katrina Curtis, Ryan Fleetwood, Hazel Ingles, and Labrée Thomas. There were five sophomores: Amanda Aldrich, Kelle Disse, Jason VanGumster, Laurie Ebertowski, and Eugene Carrier. The four freshmen were Byron VanGumster, James Kiser, Tanisha Canidy and Joseph Cleveland. The cast worked well together to bring the characters to life and make a realistic portrayal of family life.



Kelle, Laurie and Katrina goof off backstage while waiting for their cue.

James, Ryan, Amanda, Eugene, and Jason rehearse the "Dream" episode of the play.

The cast takes a break after a long practice.

You see them in the commons. You see them in the hallway. You see them in the parking lot. But who exactly are "they"? There may not be a specific name for this group of people. Their style is distinctive and unique; they definitely don't blend in. Some of them dye their hair blue, green, pink, and red. Some of them choose to just dress eccentrically . . . but they will leave an indelible impression on your mind.

Lisa Mitchell and her bright red hair were well noticed around school.

These students are some of the faces you will see in times o need. They assist the area fire and rescue teams. For high schoo students they are dedicated and should be acknowledged fo their efforts.

Nothing Gold Can Stay

Nature's first green is gold.

Her hardest hue to hold.

Her early leaf's a flower,

But only so an hour.

Then leaf subsides to leaf,

So Eden sank to grief.

So dawn goes down to day,

Nothing gold can stay.

COLOPHON

On behalf of the 1995 Prince George High School Peerage staff, I would like to use this page to thank the multitudes that deserve it! First of all I would like to thank Mrs. Martin for her help in all of our decision making processes, and the administration for all of their help. Mrs. Chancellor, getting in touch with anyone would be impossible without you! Mrs. Sturt, gosh! Where would we be without you and your infamous photocopier! Mr. Havard thank you for EVERYTHING!! For the equally appreciated remainder of the guidance staff a huge hearty thank you! Chiarky thank you for everything you have done for me and my staff, we could have never done this without you. Mrs. Gates thank you for all of your help with those tedious ads.

On a more personal note, I would like to thank most of all my SUPER DUPER X INFINITY INFINITY, Co-Editor (drum roll please) Sharon Pitchford!! How can I forget Lucinda, Matt, Karen, Jennifer, Indira, Roshida, Shannon, Lindsay, Jesse, Alisha, Ellie, Chris, Tara, Eun, and Julie, you guys did a great job for a bunch of rookies! I'm just kidding you have all worked very hard and I am very proud of you, kind of like a mom watching her child do . . . something great I'm sure!

I have to thank the three women that every yearbookie should start off with and they are, Mrs. Laurie Messer, Mrs. Allyson Ey, and Mrs. Beth O'Neill these women have kept me a yearbookie. And the most thanks in the world goes to our newest yearbookies, Ms. Jessica Bradley and Ms. Margaret Greene. We all know that dealing with us and a yearbook at the SAME TIME is a lot to ask, but we are glad you stuck with us, even though we can be little TERRORS!!! A MILLION THANKS TO ALL OF YOU!!!

Elizabeth Harrison Smith

P.S. Where is Matt?
